PADDLE POWER

es, #5 boat did go over the falls at Ohio-yle! Fortunately, it was empty, and forunately it wasn't damaged too heavily $30). The stern needed welding and the ear seat was ripped out. Some hammering estored the hull to its original shape but ith some inelegant new bends and bulges. hat's Class VII water, members, and let's ay away from it from now on!

es, Gene Cone and a private party have had brush with THE LAW while canoeing. Gene as carrying over the dam at McConnell's ills, on the Slippery Rock Creek...The ran-er stopped the last members of the party ns told them they could not launch their raft. The park security man, the ranger nd the State Police then debated with Gene he finer points of jurisdiction over waters: navigable vs not so navigable; high nd low water marks; Federal water rights: ould the Coast Guard be called: the Ken-edy's won't like this; and so on. The ummons has not yet been issued and Gene nd party are not yet in jail, but it does ook as though there could be some resoluion in the courts of this particularly exing problem.

side from these high adventures, ay and June were very good months for canoeing. The warm, sunny weather came early nd you can now reconize the canoeing crowd y their handsome tans. The Elk, Cheat anyon, Lower Yough, Lake Arthur and many others are behing us in our most active eason yet. Coming up are a canoe-camping rip on the beautiful Susquehanna with Rich bartoo; easy white-water with John Rich; canoe-sailing on Deep Creek with Bruce; and ome raft-closed boat trips. In August here will be another canoe school. Later n the month is Howard Kings Dunioine River rip, and also a New River adventure over abor Day weekend. COME CANOEING WITH US!
