TOUR DE GRAPE HARVEST, OCTOBER, 1999

by Joan Roolf

The "Tour De Grape Harvest" at Wilderness Lodge was a very successful bicycle event. Twenty-two eager bicyclists arrived, mostly Friday evening, to the usual warm, relaxing atmosphere of Wilderness Lodge. Nanci Janes assigned rooms and we settled down to games and conversation as the rain fell. Fortunately the weather forecast predicted clearing and partial sunshine for Saturday.

Saturday began with a big breakfast at 8 am, ham, bacon, homefries, eggs, or oatmeal, it was all good. Gray clouds hung heavy, but there wasn't any rain! We drove off to the charming little town of Northeast, where we met Don Hutchinson, our local guide. Don knows lots of vineyard owners in the area, and planned a 25 mile ride on the roads, vineyards and apple orchards. It was an exhilarating ride, with Lake Erie in view for part of the way. Mary Ruth Aull had an old fashioned train whistle, which added to the festive atmosphere.

Don provided us with a drink of apple cider at one of the vineyards, and we were able to sample the grapes and pick the crisp apples for a tasty treat. Then we stopped at a winery for samples, and continued on to a park at Lake Erie commemorating the first woman to swim across the lake. By now the weather was mostly sunny.

As we rode we passed a chrysanthemum farm and looked for a lunch stop. No one brought a bag lunch and our group of 23 was too large for the restaurants along the way. But we did find Johnny B's in Northeast where we ate lunch. Reservations are in order for next year. After the ride we scattered to explore and buy wine, apples and chrysanthemums.

Back at Wilderness Lodge, Nanci's crew provided us with a delicious home cooked meal. Clouds and rain kept us from having a star gazing walk so we spent the evening playing games and having a general good time.

On Sunday, after breakfast, we divided into two groups. Don led one group on the dirt roads to Peak and Peak and I led the other from Peak and Peak to and around Findley Lake. Findley Lake is an old time resort community. We stopped in the little town and had homemade ice cream before splitting up about 1 PM for the trip back to Pittsburgh.

HOSTEL HAPPENINGS

Volunteer Opportunities:

Join the fun! We are always looking for enthusiastic and fun-loving volunteers to help make HI-Pittsburgh a HIP place to visit for international visitors, US visitors, and residents of ‘da burg alike. Call or stop by during hostel hours, either 8am-10am or 5pm-10pm every day....OR visit us at the Travel Store which will be re-opening in December!! The Travel Store, also located in the hostel building, will be open Tuesdays-Saturdays, 12pm-5pm starting December 11, 1999.

We are currently seeking volunteers to assist with and/or lead events such as:

Travel Workshops/Seminars
Help first-time travelers prepare for their journeys by sharing ideas/tips on international travel. Talk about things you have learned from your own experiences; other cultures, travel safety, what to pack, how to save money, OR bring pictures/slides to share, OR just come and listen! We are looking to start having travel seminars once/month at the hostel. The next one will be in conjunction with the re-opening of the Travel Store: “Budget Travel 101—Down Under on a Budget” will be held at 2pm on December 11th. Volunteers interested in helping with this or any future travel workshops should contact Brian or Jessica at the hostel.

Open House Guides @ the Hostel
Lead a tour of the hostel! Show visitors around in our great facility here in Pittsburgh. Answer questions about hostelling along the way. Open Houses are a great way to show local residents what our mission is all about, and a wonderful way to become more involved with and learn about the opportunities that exist here in the Pittsburgh Council .

Walking Tours of the City
Lead a tour up to Mt. Washington, Oakland, the South Side, or your own favorite Pittsburgh attraction(s). Walking tours are a great way to meet new people from all around the globe. And the guests really appreciate being shown where “the locals” hang out. Wind down by stopping for eats at your favorite local hangout and chatting with your new friends. Our dedicated staff will be happy to assist you in preparing, planning, and scheduling. Just give us a call!

Booths at Travel Fairs
Hostelling International is always attending travel fairs and seminars throughout the city. Help staff one of our booths, pass out flyers, answer questions about hostelling. Most of these events are 2-4 hours and are another great way to meet new people and network.

Work Parties
Become involved in the behind-the-scenes efforts in helping make H.I.P. and the surrounding neighborhood a more beautiful place to visit. Join a clean up crew, work in our community garden, or help plan future events. We are always in need of creative, positive feedback and suggestions. We look forward to hearing your input.

Shuttle to Fallingwater/Ohiopyle
It is oftentimes very difficult for travelers to find transportation to our Ohiopyle Hostel. If you are headed that way, why not make your trip more exciting by offering a ride to some travelers that otherwise might not have the opportunity to see this beautiful area? Carpooling is fun!

FOR INFORMATION ON VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES AT THE PITTSBURGH COUNCIL, PLEASE CONTACT BRIAN FUNK OR JESSICA CARPENTER AT THE HOSTEL. (412) 431-1267

AYH ACTIVITIES WITH BEN

Well, the hiking, canoeing and kayaking trips have seen another year. One of the greatest joys for me was in the people who came on our trips. A pleasant surprise, I have met up with old friends who I have not seen for years. And I have made some outstanding new friends. Aside from the Thursday meetings, I see people who can only travel the distance to Pittsburgh on the weekend. Another pleasant surprise is getting calls as activities organizer or hiking chair from someone who would like to walk or go on a trip. I have had several calls renewing contacts from former years.

Most amazingly, I have heard about people who my friends still keep in touch with, or even see frequently, all of whom they have met at the Pittsburgh AYH. I have enjoyed many good, long-term and durable friendships over the years, but few as durable as those with fellow outdoors trippers. There is something special about Pittsburgh, there is something magical about our trips and there is wishing all of you a good holidays and a great New Year. And yes, may the boaters have more water in the next millennium. And may Brian, Jessica and Marjorie have a crowd at the hostels. Happy holidays and Gelukkig Nieuwjaar.

The Icycle Bicycle Ride is the WPW bicycle club's annual ride first ride of the year, but this year is a little different. It is the first bike ride of the Millennium! Everyone is invited! Icycle Bicycle Ride veterans know the drill. Meet on Penn Ave. at the end of the 31 St. Bridge. We will leave at 1:00 PM SHARP so plan to get there a little early to get your bike set up and sign in. Then we will proceed majestically down fifteen blocks on Penn Ave. to McDonald's for hot chocolate and coffee complements of the WPW. If the weather is nasty (rain, snow, ice, sub-zero) we will loop down to Smallman St. and beat it back to the starting point and our warm homes. Should the weather prove to be as balmy as the bicyclists (40 degrees F and dry), we will continue on to the Mickey D's in North Side and return to our starting point via the riverfront trails and the 31st Bridge. Be sure to dress warm and pay particular attention to your feet. Inexperienced winter riders tend to show up in heavy coats and leave their piggies in thin sneakers to freeze in the breeze. Any questions? Call George Schmidt at 412-521-1538 or e-mail: wpwgeorge@aol.com.

CANOEING

Brian McBane (724) 443-8972

We encourage feed back from trip leaders, instructors and participants. If you have ideas or suggestions for the year 2000, please contact the canoeing chairs, or try to make the late winter planning meeting, to be announced in a future issue. Until then, best wishes and many thanks to all who make the canoeing program possible. To Ben: the canoeists also are fond of dining out after paddling trips. We have even joked about a supplement to the Shaw/Weil guidebook, featuring favorite restaurants!!!!

ROCK CLIMBING

Rock Out with AYH!

Rock climbing trips from Pittsburgh Council of American Youth Hostels

The AYH Rock Climbing program is a great way to experience the thrill of rock climbing. Our Beginner trips are focused on teaching "never evers" the basics of rock climbing. AYH supplies the climbing gear plus a group of experienced climbers to set up the climbs and teach the course. All you need to bring is a bag lunch, water, and a sunny disposition. Wear loose-fitting, comfortable clothes (shorts and T-shirts in the summer) and tennis shoes. It's not a bad idea to pack raingear in the event of a late-afternoon thunderstorm.

1999/2000 AYH ROCK CLIMBING TRIPS

No trips currently planned, as everyone is gearing up for cross-country skiing. Call Chuck Jones at (412) 242-6172 to see if anything comes up.

PPAC REPORT

"Another acronym," I hear you cry. "What the heck is it?" PPAC is PennDOT's Pedestrian and Pedalcycle Advisory Committee. Despite Bill Metzger's recommendation I was appointed to PPAC by Governor Ridge and attended my first meeting on September 14, 1999. The meeting was a complete shock to one who has attended meetings with PennDOT for years to advocate more bicycle facilities. Bicycling is now a high priority in the Pennsylvania transportation mix. While we have been babbling for years about the benefits of health, recreation and bicycle commuting, the Ridge administration has discovered that bicycles are good business. Improved bicycle facilities are relatively cheap and they draw big returns from tourism. When I mentioned the recent study that stated the Youghiogheny River and rail-trail bring in $14 million a year in tourism money, people sat up in their chairs. Right now our major project is to establish six marked bicycle routes across Pennsylvania. (Please read the "A" Bicycle Route article.) I was appointed to PPAC to represent the interests of the WPW, the AYH, and other bicyclists in western Pennsylvania. I would like to form a sub-committee to gather information and issues to present at PPAC meetings and distribute information about the meetings. Anyone interested? Give me a call at 412-521-1538 or e-mail: wpwgeorge@aol.com. PPAC also has a web site under PennDOT's home page.

TAKE THE "A" BICYCLE ROUTE FROM MORGANTOWN TO ERIE

Governor Ridge wants six bicycle routes across Pennsylvania as soon as possible. And when the Governor talks, people listen. PennDOT's Pedestrian and Pedalcycle Advisory Committee (PPAC) has formed a sub-committee to layout the routes. They are two across the length of our state, three running north and south and one connecting Ohio and New York through Erie. The "G" Route, running down the center of the state through Altoona, is complete, as is the "Z" Route from Ohio to New York.

Appropriately, the "A" Route is on our turf. It will run from the PA border near Morgantown, WV north to Erie, PA. PennDOT's District 12, based in Uniontown has the overall responsibility for posting route-marking signs. Local PPAC members Linda Boxx and Bill Metzger are heading the "A" Route Committee. Linda is President of the Allegheny Trails Alliance and lives in New Stanton. Bill Metzger is a legendary rail-trail advocate from Mt. Lebanon. Along with help from our own Ned Williams, they have laid out the route from Morgantown to Elwood City. They have asked me, the newest PPAC member from western PA, to help out and get the WPW involved to complete the route. As bike clubs already exist in these areas we intend to solicit the input of bicyclists and tourist agencies along the "A" route to achieve the best possible route.

You better sit down before you continue reading. PennDOT said the preferred routing is on state roads so they could make improvements to shoulders, perform maintenance and post signs without the red tape involved when dealing local and federal maintained roads.

This is an opportunity we can't pass up. The founders of the WPW dreamed of setting up a bicycle route system like this thirty years ago. Now it will be a reality. If you would like to become involved in the "A" Route Committee contact George Schmidt at 412-521-1538 or e-mail wpwgeorge@aol.com.

CYCLE THE SOUTHERN ALLEGHENYS!

The Southern Alleghenies Regional Tourism Confederation has put together a program called "Cycle Southern Alleghenies" (CSA) to promote bicycle tourism in the Southern Alleghenies Region of Pennsylvania. This includes Bedford, Blair, Cambria, Fulton, Huntingdon, and Somerset counties. Altoona, in Blair County, was named one of America's Five Best Bike Towns by Bicycling Magazine. It hosts the annual Tour de'Toona, the largest pro-amateur road race in the country. Altoona was also the two time host to the United States Cycling Federation National Championships and Olympic Trials. CSA has published a set of seventeen maps of bicycle tours in the region that feature the gorgeous scenery of the area and other cultural and historical attractions. The maps may be copied from the CSA web site, www.cyclesa.com, or ordered by phone by calling 1-800-458-3433.

KEYSTONE '99

The AYH and WPW was well represented at this year's Keystone Ride. Seen were Ned Williams, Donna & Jerry Green, Sally & Chuck Martin, Dan Oshop, and Glen Oster. There were other bicyclists from our area wearing T-shirts from Pittsburgh area bicycle events that blew by me and I didn't catch their names. Kathy Matta, a former Republican candidate for Mayor of Pittsburgh, was also in attendance. Overall, there were about 400 bicyclists in attendance.

I drove up to Williamsport, PA with legendary rail-trail advocate Bill Metzger. We took eight hours to complete a four-hour drive due to stops at the New Portage Railroad and Horseshoe Curve. Bill is a fount of railroad and canal history. I have zoomed past these places on the way to someplace else for over 30 years and never took the time to stop. They are well worth a special trip from Pittsburgh.

Sunday evening, before the ride, Dan Oshop and some other Steeler faithful found a sports bar and watched the Stillers whup the Dawg Pound. The Williamsport folk were greatly amused by a black and gold T-shirt that said, "Cleveland Still Sucks".

On Monday morning we gathered at the site of the Little League Hall of Fame in South Williamsport for breakfast and to hear the politicians begin the speechifying. Our guardians, the State Police motorcycle detachment was smartly standing by and ready to rumble. Some Asian tourists approached and asked for permission to take a picture. In short order the ladies of the group were sitting on these gleaming Harleys surrounded by PA's finest. A great picture for the folks back home. It would appear those bikes run on 120 octane testosterone.

We left our cars at the beautiful Little League World Series complex, loaded our baggage on trucks, and headed down PA 220. Roughly 400 bicyclist shepherded by the booming Harleys. Yes, this is the way to travel. At the rest stops you just say, "We're with him." And you are welcome.

In theory, the ride is to promote bicycling, tourism and businesses in Pennsylvania. The bikers did their part at the Woolrich outlet store. Yes, the plastic was singing through the scanners that morning. The outdoor clothing selection was very good with excellent prices and they even shipped your booty home for free.

The riders began to stretch out on the route. That opened opportunities to cruise in the rocking chair of the convoy. It was then easier to visit with other folks and enjoy the countryside. A number of WPW riders formed a pace line in the face of an annoying headwind and boogied smartly down the road. One of the most memorable stops was Bald Eagle State Park. We rested at a pavilion overlooking the lake that was large enough for sailboats and nestled in a scenic valley.

We ended the first days ride at a grand reception at the park in Bellefonte. We were taken by bus to our lodgings State College. I took a stroll along College Avenue and paid my respects to Old Main. In previous life I spent a few semesters at Penn State. The kids look the same but the downtown area looks better. I personally felt like an escapee from Jurassic Park.

Tuesday dawned gray and rainy. We were transported to the Military Museum at Boalsburg where the ceremonies were rained out. In typical army fashion, the color guard stood in the rain for a couple of hours only to be told the ceremonies were canceled. It's nice to know some things never change.

We re-embarked and went to the next stop. By then the rained had stopped and we were finally on the bikes again. We stopped at Indian Caverns. October is Archeology Month in Pennsylvania and people who had worked on the dig at Indian Caverns were on hand to display stone artifacts found in the area. We were fed a boxed lunch and the local historical society raffled off souvenirs. Then we were off again. We cruised through open fields then dove down a steep hill that ended at a T-intersection. PennDOT had thoughtfully placed rumble strips on the road to warn motor traffic. Unfortunately, we almost lost some bicyclists over their handlebars when they hit the strips. At the base of the hill we swung on to the Lower Trail. I hung back to see what was happening at the rear of the ride. Bill Metzger and the sag wagon crew were shadowing the last rider. The Governor was being shown remnants of the Pennsylvania Canal by some local folk. Between the Sag Wagon and the main body of riders I had large stretches of the scenic trail to myself. It is a very beautiful, tree shaded trail and worth a visit. At this point the day had warmed up. The heat and the mileage began to take its toll on some of the riders. At the trail terminus in the little town of Williamsburg, many riders stretched out in the grass to relax while the Governor visited with the local folk. Governor Ridge pays particular attention to the children. He will stop and chat with any group of kids he sees along the road. They seem to sense that meeting the Governor of Pennsylvania is a major event in their personal history and they are delighted that he smiles, shakes their hands, gives them autographs, and asks them questions about themselves.

The last rest stop was at the Slinky factory in Holidaysburg, on the outskirts of Altoona. We were again treated to refreshments while an orchestra serenaded us and the Governor smoozed. He called the members of his cabinet who rode with him to the podium for a picture. That was truly a historic moment for bicycling in Pennsylvania. The Governor of Pennsylvania with five members of his cabinet posing in bike clothes after riding 50 miles on bicycles.

Finally, we made our triumphal entrance into Altoona. We regrouped at the new stadium that is the home of the "Altoona Curve" minor league baseball team. We met some of their players and a large fuzzy creature that one may assume was their mascot. Our trip ended at the Altoona Railroad Museum. A huge tent was setup with lots of food provided by local businesses, from wine to Penn State Creamery yogurt. Most amazing was a video that recapped highlights from previous Keystone Rides and ended with us entering Altoona on Keystone '99.

So as the sun slowly set on the Allegheny Front we loaded our bikes in the trucks. Some folks were headed back to Williamsport, while others would stay over in Altoona and return to Williamsport the next day.

The Keystone Ride is a rare experience. You get to do a bike ride with the Governor of Pennsylvania and many of the movers and shakers in the state-wide bicycling community. It takes you to places that we Pennsylvanians take for granted and usually by-pass on the way to someplace else. It gives you a new appreciation for our commonwealth and what it has to offer. In short, the Keystone Ride is a lot of fun.

HIKERS ONLY!!!!

“Hiking Only” On 21 National & State Forest Trails

The Bureau of Forestry, DCNR, has determined that eighteen state forest trails and three national trails shall remain designated as “hiking only” trails. David J. Gregg, Assistant State Forester, made the announcement at a meeting held in Huntingdon near Rothrock State Forest. Forester Gregg stated that “these trails have always been a part of the state forest hiking trail system and will remain as pure hiking trails.” No other recreational uses will be permitted on these state trails, except where some permitted trail uses intersect. At some trail crossings, the permitted recreational user (other than hikers) will be expected to construct and maintain that section of the trail. On some shared sections of the trail, the users will share maintenance on an equitable basis dependent on the type of resource damage to the trail.

In reference to the posting of signs, there will be a combination of positive and negative signing as appropriate. Some enforcement requirements mandate that there must be some negative signing.

Attending the meeting were Ed Beck, President, Thyra Sperry, Education Chair, Keystone Trails Association, and representatives of the Bureau of Forestry, the mountain bike and equine communities.

The hiking community in Pennsylvania has a long record of building and maintaining footpaths. KTA recently was awarded the “Conservation Volunteer Group of the Year” by Governor Ridge and the Dept. of Conservation & Natural Resources. Last year, over 35,000 hours of documented hours of work on hiking trails was reported. James R. Grace, DCNR’s director of the Bureau of Forestry said that “KTA has been a valuable partner in keeping Pennsylvania’s natural resources accessible.”

KTA, its members and individuals have a history of building and maintaining footpaths so that they have the least impact on the land. KTA will continue to work to preserve the land. As the leader in trail building, we will share our trail-building expertise with mountain bikers and equestrians to help them in their goals.

A grateful “thank you” to members of KTA, hiking and outdoor clubs throughout the commonwealth and to everyone who wrote a letter, signed a petition, and contacted the Bureau of Forestry with your opinions in support of the “designated hiking trail “ issue. Your generous input was instrumental in preserving these trails for future generations. The American Hiking Society and the Appalachian Trail Conference actively supported KTA in achieving this outcome. Their help is greatly appreciated.

The trails designated as “hiking only” are the Baker Trail, Black Forest Trail, Bucktail Path, Chuck Keiper Trail, Donut Hole Trail, Golden Eagle Trail, John P. Saylor Trail, Lost Turkey Trail, Loyalsock Trail, Mid-State Trail, Old Loggers Path, Pinchot Trail System, Quehanna Trail, Rocky Knob Trail, Susquehannock Trail System, Thunder Swamp Trail System, Tuscarora Trail, West Rim Trail, Appalachian National Scenic Trail, North Country National Scenic Trail and the Potomac Heritage (Laurel Highlands) National Recreation Trail.
