SING ALONG WITH SUE

To a hiker, it's his well-worn shoes
To a seilor, it's a down-wind cruise
To a backpacker, it's a drink that's cool
To a swimmer, a quiet pool

CHORUS: Happiness is ... Happiness is ...
Happiness is ...
Different things to different people
That's what happiness is

To a crafter, it's the Lower Yough
To a climber, it's a pile of rocks
To a caver, it's a hole that goes
To a skier, 12 months of snow

To a skater, Panther Hollow at night
To a canoeist, standing waves to fight
To a cyclist, it's a road un-bent
To a camper, it's a tent

To Gene Cone, it's a car that starts
To Sue Allardice, it's a song with parts
To Ken Horner, it's a sweet young thing
To Ann Fisher, a blue D-ring

"I THOUGHT I
SHOULD SEE AMERICA
FIRST!"

THURSDAY NIGHT IS "OPEN HOUSE" AT AYH
Schedule of Programs for August, 1968
8:30 p.m.

- 1st Come and join Sue Simler cycling along that famous byway--the C & O Canal. Learn the "Simler technique" of not losing your cool while leading teenagers and lesser devils down this treacherous bikeway and bargeway reputed to still have Indians, pirates, canal boat gamblers and tunnels to nowhere lurking in its shadows.
- 8th I looked over Jordan and what did I see? Fred Kissell a'comin' after me. Yes, folks, its time to swing our sweet chariots toward Egypt and Jordan, home of the flooding Nile, Moses, papyrus, Abdul Nesser and mummies galore. After the slide show, Dr. Kissell will be glad to discuss pyramid construction with anyone interested in preserving the hereafter.
- 15th Crew a schooner with Jim Hurst on the sunny Caribbean and lay anchor in the Windward Islands of the British West Indies to gulp rum, dance late into the moonlight evenings to Calypso and dream of the days of Blackbeard the pirate.
- 22nd Canoeists Geertz and Eddingar will show movies (homemade, of course) of some leisure paddling on Canadian rivers. See a paradise of waterfalls, portages, mosquitoes, isolation, daily precipitation, soggy sleeping bags and possibly, just possibly, some good fireside cooking.
- 29th "Its 1066 and all that" says Hugh Gilmour. Devalue your pounds and travel to Ol' England: let your hair down for its Beattle time. Be sure to hear Hugh's account of the ups and downs between London and Stratford-on-Avon--also including those between William the Conqueror and Harold Wilson.

WANT ADS

Dacron sleeping bag, very warm, mummy type. Originally $35.00, now only $15. Call Patricia ~~Triangle~~ (362-7149).
